Dated this the 2nd day of April, 2007

Judgment

Koshy, J.

This is a petition for police protection. Already an order of police protection was granted by Ext.P2. If there is violation of the same, it is for the petitioner to approach the court for contempt. From the averments in the petition as well as from the exhibits it is seen that petitioner is now residing in a lodge. It is also submitted that already there is a case before the Family Court and fourth respondent has obtained an injunction order against the petitioner.

In the above circumstances, it is for the petitioner to get appropriate orders from the court where the case is pending. We are not expressing any opinion regarding the disputes between the petitioner and his son, fourth respondent. In view of Ext.P2 judgment, no further orders in the police protection writ petition is required. The writ petition is disposed of.
